[ Outline ]

- An introduction to Facebook
- Hands on: registering with facebook
- Making friends, adding a profile picture, updating your status, responding to requests
- Facebook: Causes and groups: joining groups, searching for groups and making your own

[ Introduction ]

- Facebook is a global social networking website that is operated and privately owned by Facebook, Inc.
- Url: <http://www.facebook.com>
- Enables users to add friends and send them messages,
- Update their personal profiles to notify friends about themselves.
- Additionally, users can join networks organized by city, workplace, school, and region.

Features

- Facebook has a number of features with which users may interact. They include;
- The Wall, a space on every user's profile page that allows friends to post messages for the user to see.
- A user's Wall is visible to anyone who is able to see that user's profile, depending on privacy settings.
- Photos, this is one of the most popular applications on Facebook, where users can upload albums and photos
- Videos...Can upload videos clips

Features

- Status, which allows users to inform their friends of their whereabouts and actions.
- In July 2007, Facebook began allowing users to post attachments to the Wall, whereas the Wall was previously limited to textual content only.
- Over time, Facebook has added several new features to its website -- a News Feed, which appears on every user's homepage and highlights information including profile changes, upcoming events, and birthdays of the user's friends.
- Create a page for your Business or organisation – can be used to advertise..what u are doing
- Create a group – contribute to a cause, or a campaign

- A large black left square bracket and a large gold right square bracket are positioned at the top of the slide. A horizontal bar with a gold-to-white gradient spans the width of the slide below the brackets.
- Applications > Groups
  - You can find a group
  - Create a group
  - Applications > pages
  - Become a fan of a page
  - Create your own page – say for your organisation
